Weather cooperates for a Concert in Crusader Park

At last, the F. G. Miller Crusaders have been fortunate in their choice of a date for their outdoor concert, which has been cancelled several times in past years because of inclement weather.

The FGM courtyard was the site for last Wednesday's enjoyable evening of music, which started off with three numbers by the Grade 7 Band. "The brave survivors", as music instructor Randall Kry's called the band members who were able to attend, played "Kumbaya", "Mexican Hat Dance" and "Camptown Races".

Kelsey Slywka and Jerin Bezpalko were the sole Grade 8 performers, with a guitar duet of "Peter Gunn".

Special guest guitarist Brendan Bishop, a student at Elk Point Elementary, showed his growing guitar skills in Roy Orbison's classic "Pretty Woman".

Five Grade 9 students also performed on guitar. April Bresky and Emily Mosley played a duet of "Maggie May" with Emily on vocals. Craig Dallaire was joined by Mr. Kry's on guitar and vocals for "Brown Eyed Girl" while Corbin Poitras was called upon to add vocals to Danielle Abraham's solo, "Wild Thing" and to join Troy Lehr in a guitar duet of an excerpt from "Nothing Else Matters".

Thanks FOR BUYING LOCAL

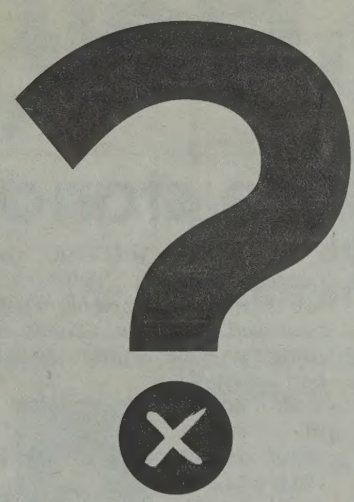

Thanks For Buying Local Elk Point

Elk Point businesses are some of the best in Alberta and they compete with large businesses from Edmonton and Cold Lake on a regular basis. We truly appreciate the support of our local customers and would like to extend a huge "Thanks for Buying Local". During the month of June we'll show our thanks by displaying signs, wearing buttons and giving you the chance to win a total of $1000 in Elk Point bucks. In economic development terms your locally spent dollar 'recycles' 7 or 8 times throughout the community. This happens not only through wages, but purchases for gas, groceries, meals, gifts and professional services. So it does make sense to buy locally for your pocket-book, and for the well being of your community. Next time you're in the market for something new, think local and "put your money where your house is".

Minor Ball receives support

Rural Health Regions "growing on our own"

Aspen Regional Health is helping local youth pursue a career in the health care sector. The Health Region has been focusing on "Growing Our Own": by creating a number of initiatives to help youth get started in a health care career.

"Grow Our Own" health employees is also the theme of this year's Alberta Rural Health Care Week. Thousands of health care workers will celebrate the third annual Rural Health Week from June 13 to 19. This special week, facilitated by the Alberta Rural Physician Action Plan (RPAP), is the result of the collaboration of 40 groups representing many provincial and regional rural health interests.

The annual event gives community partners an opportunity to talk about the challenges of rural health service delivery and showcases the positive contributions of rural health professionals and organizations. Rural health service delivery faces some unique challenges not seen in urban areas - large geographic distances, the ease of access to specialty services, and issues related to recruitment and retention of rural health workers. And, just as Alberta's health system is evolving, so too is rural health practice as it responds and finds new ways to embrace emerging technologies, improve medical practices and enhance the skills of rural health professionals.

"One of the biggest challenges facing rural health care is recruiting staff. By "Growing Our Own", Aspen Regional Health hopes to expose youth to the many exciting opportunities for employment in the health sector within their own community. Some of the employment programs Aspen is offering this summer include:

CAREERS - The Next Generation : offers summer employment to high school students who have completed Grade 10 or 11.

STEP - Summer Temporary Employment Program: A summer employment program sponsored by the Alberta government. Aspen is offering 20 STEP positions throughout the region this summer.

SCP - Summer Career Placement: Aspen applied for eight SCP positions from the federally-funded program this summer.

Scholarship Program: This is fully founded by Aspen Regional Health and is a program that invites Grade 12 students to apply for one of several $500 scholarships that are awarded to students each year; students who have been accepted into a university or college to pursue a career in the health care industry.

Bursary - Northern Alberta Development Council (NADC): The NADC is offering new and increased funding through bursary programs that link students to northern employers. A new bursary for pharmacy students offers $3000, which is matched by pharmacies, health regions or other sponsors for a total of $6000 per student. This is similar to the $5000 bursary created last year for medical students, which is also matched by another $5000 by sponsors. As well, the NADC has created the Health Care Practicum Placement Funding program to help students taking practicum courses in northern Alberta over the cost of travel and accommodation.

HAPPY Father's Day JUNE 20

We stand on guard for thee

In November of 1990, Gary Lautens is quoted as saying: "Pollsters say Canadians are depressed right now. They say we're discouraged. Don't be. Think of all the good things we have. Think of how lucky we are to be Canadian."

In a couple of weeks, there is an important event occurring before our Elk Point Canada Day celebrations.

deanna EASTHOPE

from the FCSS desk

Monday, June 28 is Federal election day. Let us remember to vote. One polling station will be at the Pioneer Circle Seniors Centre in Elk Point. If it is not possible for you to vote on that day, you may take part in advance voting. You can do this on June 18, 19 and 21 at the Elk Point Library (if that is your polling station), from 12 noon to 8 p.m.

Don't be one of those people who say... "There is no one to vote for!" You are probably saying this because you are turned off politics and politicians. If you are making this statement you are probably one of the Canadians who are depressed and discouraged. After all, you are probably light as you have many good reasons for feeling the way you do. Sometimes people make poor decisions and sometimes people make really good decisions. It can as well be said that sometimes people who carry out decisions may do it in a poor manner and sometimes people carry out decisions made in a really good manner. Because, you know what? People are people and that is the simplest way to say it!

Let us support our democracy and be a part of Canada. Let us vote on election day and then afterwards, let us support our candidates by continuing to talk to them and voice our concerns. After all, we are Canadians and let us stand on guard for our country! Former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker said it so admirably:

I Am A Canadian

I am a Canadian,
Free to speak without fear,
free to worship in my own way,
free to stand for what I think right,
free to oppose what I believe wrong, or free to choose those who shall govern my country.
This heritage of freedom
I pledge to uphold for myself and all mankind.

Let us all be proud to be Canadians. Let us all vote in the upcoming election and let us all celebrate our country's birthday and take part in the July 1 Elk Point Canada Day celebrations. How old will Canada be? Who was our first Prime Minister? Who will be our Prime Minister on July 1, 2004? Can you all answer two or three of these questions? Of course you can! Let up celebrate Canada's birthday - her yesterday, her today and her tomorrow! See you at election time and see you all on July 1. (By then you will be able to answer the third question). Happy Birthday Canada!

Physicians are the cornerstone of rural health care – providing office, home, hospital, community and emergency medical care. Rural physicians are employers, local consumers, volunteers, community supporters – and your neighbors.

When a rural physician needs time off for vacation, continuing education or personal leave, the Rural Locum Program may provide a replacement physician. Your physician can then take time off with the comfort of knowing you are being cared for while he or she is away.

During RURAL HEALTH WEEK, June 14 - 19, stop to acknowledge your physician's contributions to your health and to your community.

J. B. Stanley replied. Roddy Saddleback toasted the parents, offering thanks for their ongoing understanding and encouragement, with a reply by Charlie Quinney, who said, "It's good to see young people reach their goals." Mary Saskatchewan toasted the school staff, "We are here today because you believed in us." Theresa Dillon replied.

Adelard Quinney entertained with "Stand By Me" as the graduands filed out, returning a short while later in caps and gowns to take their places on stage. Carmen Murphy introduced each grad, focusing on their qualities "which will add to the world. These graduands are good and wonderful people."

Valedictorian Neyosa Quinney was "proud I've accomplished one of my biggest goals, to graduate and move one step further on my education path... but the whole week before grad, I have been sad that this is where I consider the end of my child hood. I'm glad I've grown up here, with everyone in Frog Lake." She thanked "a few people for keeping me in school and making life easier... my parents for showing and teaching me love, courage, respect and forgiveness... the teachers and teacher aides for teaching and feeding us with knowledge... my best buddies... and my siblings for being loving and caring."

Grade 12 student Waylon Quinney entertained with a song.

Guest speaker Gloria McGilvery said, "these are the moments of our lives... the day our children's dreams are fulfilled." She recalled the one-room school she attended in the 1960s, and admired "this wonderful school we all worked together to achieve." She told the grads, "within each one of us is a gift you can share with your community in the future," and added, "education is the most important gift you can achieve." She advised them to "keep your focus, keep your culture - never lose your language and your culture. I ask you to promote peace, harmony and love. Always be friendly."

School board member Agnes Abraham gave a brief message in Cree, and acknowledged all the guests present.

Chief Raymond Quinney joined Principal Wilson in presenting gifts and certificates to graduands Nathan Kingdon, Evan Dillon, Mary Saskatchewan, Tristan Stanley, Natasha Quinney, Terrance Singer,

Marmie Quinney sang as graduands returned to the stage and tossed their mortarboards high in the air. Each grad introduced their parents and presented them with a gift.

Chief Quinney addressed the grads in both Cree and English, noting "we can't give all the credit to the Grade 12 students. Some of it goes to the parents who strove to bring them to where they are today, to the grandparents for their prayers, to the teachers for putting up with our children. I am very proud as Chief to say we are making history in Grade 12: 14 grads is a big accomplishment. Hopefully they will come back with degrees, or as doctors." At a recent convocation in Edmonton, "I saw 400 young people receiving degrees. Hopefully one day I will see you there." He encouraged the students; "we must not lose sight of who we are. We must speak our language... to be able to pray with the elders and to sit with them in our lodges.

This must live on." He reminded them, though they may leave Frog Lake, "our campfires are always open to you, you are always welcome."

The Chief was joined by a line of elders who faced the line of graduands in a touching ceremony where each graduand was sent out into the adult world in the Native tradition with prayers for their future and carrying an eagle feather.

The evening concluded with an honor song.

This week's feature team: U8

By Tracy Kjenner
Elk Point Soccer Club

We're halfway through the soccer season and you've yet to meet two Elk Point teams. This week's feature team is u8.

Soccer season is short as it is, but these players have really practiced hard. They are given opportunities to try out each position, and their favorites are goalie or forward.

The coaches, therefore, have a tough job just juggling the kids so that everyone gets a chance at these spots. They have also been concentrating on teaching the kids the importance of defensemen and how to follow the ball up the field without getting out of position. At an age where everyone wants their chance at kicking the ball, this is quite challenging for the players.

Each practice is comprised of basic drills and then half an hour of game time. The coaches feel that this has helped the kids get the required practice on the whole field. Certainly their game shave shown much improvement since the beginning of the season.

This team has only one more "home" game that you will be able to attend if you'd like to see them in action. Plan to attend their game against Two Hills on Monday, June 21 at 6:30 p.m.
